Vice-President L. B. Eiy, of Missouri, called the convention to order, the congregation rose and sung the Doxology— "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," and Rev. Dr. H. H. Tucker, of Georgia, made a fervent prayer of invocation. THE VACANT CHAIR. Professor Ely made a feeling and appro-diate reference to the vacant chair of Dr. fell, paid him a brief tribute, and said that he would only occupy the chair until the or-ganization was effected.

The congregation then rose and sung with a will, "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," ap-propriate Scriptures were read, and Rev. Dr. J. L. Burrows, of Norfolk, led in a fer-vent and appropriate prayer. ent and appropriate prayer.

Rev. Dr. George Cooper, pastor of the First church, made an appropriate and eloquent address of welcome. In behalf of the leu while churches of Richmond, the pastors of the city, and especially this old mother church, who is proud of all of her nine datachters, he extended a hearty greeting and a warm welcome. He said that we are brethren, whether coming from Maine or Florida. When twelve vears ago the church invited the convention they knew whom they were inviting, and the convention her was described by had met here. We have mingled together before, and are one in falth and practice.

He feelingly alluded to the losses sustained during the past year, and especially to the death of Dr. Mell and Rev. Dr. M. T. WELCOME.

The Chair announced that nominations for President were now in order.

Rev. Dr. C. Tyree, of Virginia, in a brief but graceful speech put in nomination Rev. Dr. James P. Boyce, of Louisville, Ky. Rev. Dr. W. H. Williams, of Missouri, arose and said that he had been instructed by the Missouri delegation to vote for Dr. Boyce.

Rev. Dr. Hawthorne, of Georgia, said that thought be could also speak for his lelegation in endorsing Dr. Boyce.
Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, of North Carolina, endorsed the nomination of Dr. Boyce.
Rev. Dr. Penick, of Louisiana, nominated Rev. Dr. Pellex, of Virginia.

Dr. Pollard at once took the floor, and in a few carnest words sold that he was not writing that his name should be used in even apparent opposition to Dr. Boyce, and he insisted upon its withdrawal, which was granted.

CAUGHT AT LAST.

The Poisoner of Mr. Chamberlayne's Family Confesses. Yesterday about 1 o'clock Wren's Deter

Yesterday about 1 o'clock Wren's Detective Agency was employed to investigate the potsoning of Mr. F. W. Chamberlayne's family, at 610 east Grace street, on the 30th of April. Mr. Wren at once went to work, and at 4 l'. M. arrested a colored woman, twenty-two years of age, named Anna Gordon, who, after much persuasion, confessed in the presence of Mr. Chamberlayne that she took some bed-bug powder and put it in a can of meal which was in the kitchen and which she knew would be used the next morning for bread for breakfast.

The Saturday preceding the Monday on which this occurred Mrs. Chamberlayne had told the woman, who was her house-servant, that on Monday her month would be out and that she would need her no longer. This angered the girl and led her to the act, though she claims to have only intended to frighten she claims to have only intended to frighten the family, and declares that she had no in-tion of killing them. She says "the devil made her do it." Hillary Page, "the Ches-terfield fire-fiend," said the same thing with
